

Hvad skal jeg gøre for at søge visum til Schweiz?

Generelt: som EU-borger skal du ikke have visum, men en opholdstilladelse, som udstedes af the Cantonal Migration Offices i det område af Schweiz du kommer til at bo i.

Se nedenstående info fra den Schweiziske ambassade (tjek også selv med deres hjemmeside, idet kravene kan være anderledes end beskrevet):

Residence permits

Anyone who works during his/her stay in Switzerland or who remains in Switzerland for longer than three months requires a permit. Residence permits are issued by the Cantonal Migration Offices. A distinction is made between short-term residence permits (less than one year), annual residence permits (limited) and permanent residence permits (unlimited).

The authorizations required for a stay of over three months in Switzerland are dependent on the applicant's nationality

State Secretariat for Migration SEM – Cantonal immigration authorities

You can take up residence in Switzerland without gainful employment if:

- ☐ you have sufficient financial resources to support yourself and are not dependent on social welfare assistance,
- ☐ you have adequate accident and health insurance,
- ☐ you would like to study and can show proof that you have been admitted to an educational institution (matriculation certificate).

You can stay in Switzerland for up to 90 days within a six-month period without a permit. For longer stays you must register as a person without gainful employment with the appropriate cantonal immigration and employment market authorities.

The EU/EFTA residence permit is valid for five years and is extended automatically if you continue to meet the criteria. Students are issued either with a residence permit for the duration of their studies or with a permit for one year with annual renewal until the end of their education.

Med andre ord – din værtsfamilie kører med dig til den nærmeste Cantonal Migration Offices der er ansvarlig for det område du er kommet til at bo i.

Her bliver du registreret og får din opholdstilladelse.

Hvis du ikke får besvaret dine spørgsmål (hav tålmodighed) kan du efterfølgende sende en mail til visum@rotary.dk eller (start med at sende en mail...) ringe til Michael Rye Sørensen 60513719

Forvent en svartid på 1-2 dage.